[From the Home Journal.] DEAR ALLIE Now I am going to tell you how I played the fast young lady, and had, O, such fun. Ma has got back from Saratoga, but she and Thuse went away to spend Sanday, so I told Fred he must take me to Hooley's matinee, and treat me as if I were the belle of the season. But, O, it was an awild serious affair getting myself up in style; I would rather dress twenty are balies than meetrake it again. In the first NOTICE is hereby given that at the adjourned Nession of the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, in January next, application will be made for the establishment of a new county to be called Brown, and bounded as follows: Beginning at the northeast corner of section dive, township fifty, range twenty-two; thence west on the township line to the northwest cerner of township fifty, range ine to the stallment of the northwest corner of section eighteen, township dive, range twenty-four; thence west on the subdivisional line to the northwest corner of section twenty-three, township fifty, range twenty-time to the southwest corner of section thereby the southwest corner of section the substitution that the southwest corner of section thereby the southwest corner of section the substitution that the southwest corner of section the substitution that the southwest corner of section the substitution the substitution that the substitutio

after rubbing the skin nearly off, I calied to Fred, who shouled with laughter when he saw me; but he put something on that took the nasty stuff off, and then told me to let my complexion alone. Such an idea! "Indeed, Fred," I said, "do you think a fashionable young lady went appear in public with her face in such an uncultivated condition? Stylish girls shinly to improve their charms, so I shall cover my skin first with giverurs, and then apply white powder in the most deheate manner." which I did at once with Fred to supertitlend the performance. That is the way the Southern girls do, you know, and sometimes the powder comes off in patches, and then don't they look styresive? After my face was finished I arranged my hair, and exhausted three long braids and about a peck of little curls; but O, Allie, I did look awful sweet! Next my feet. Of course, it would not be in keeping to wear gallers large enough, so I forced on a pair of Archivas' absend little No. two's, and, Allie, I believe purratory is only a mild term for tight hoots. I am sure John Kogers and his nine small chilaren at the stake did not suffer more than I did. I felt as if ten thousand pinch bugs had possession of my lore but, then, what won't the soul of a high-midded girl endure in such a cause? It did check the flow of my spirits though, I must confess.

For a rediagote I selected one of my absent safer, with buttons big enough for bell-pulls, and I stuck my hat at the back of my store-bair, and smelling-bottle all to my belt, and made Fred give ine three or four of Thuse's most in other than the back of my store-bair, and smelling-bottle all to my belt, and made Fred give in three or four of Thuse's most in other than the back of my store-bair, and smelling-bottle all to my belt, and made Fred give in three or four of Thuse's most in other than the back of my store-bair, and smelling-bottle all to my belt, and made Fred give in three or four of Thuse's most in other left check upon the red from the milancholy all tep loces.
